

Wild Blue Dive Club

What is the Wild Blue Dive Club?

Have you ever wanted to meet with divers of differing experience levels some who enjoy discussing their latest vacation or photographic safari? Would you like to hear about new destinations from people who have been there or about new equipment from the users and company personnel?

The Wild Blue Dive Club is part of an International organization of diving enthusiasts who want to be able to maximize their dive time year round, meet new divers and always keep up to date on the latest diving travel, education and equipment.

The Dive Shop sponsors this social club to provide divers an opportunity to talk about diving and local activities. For those divers who are members, there are special member's only activities and benefits at the facility including member only special discounts.
